REFLECTION

How impatient are we, with God and ourselves, wishing we could have right now all the blessings, all the knowledge, all the healing that God has for us? Paul reminds us that the day of the Lord is already here. God is satisfied with creation as it is today, satisfied that we take one more step towards Him. For days before Jesus came, Zacchaeus has been questioning the way he was living, edging his way up that tree, so that finally, one day, when Jesus arrives, he can give his whole life. The reading from Wisdom, reminds us that God's mercy comes in drops, only tipping the scales after many deposits. God corrects and moves us "little by little." If God is not impatient with us, we need not be impatient with ourselves. It is okay that we need time to heal, time to see, time to grow, and time to respond to Him. Abundant life takes a lifetime to appreciate, receive and practise. We can be patient with ourselves and with each other because God is.

ARCHDIOCESE

Vatican Clarifies the Rules for Cremation: Bury, Don't Scatter

VATICAN CITY — Ashes to ashes is fine, the Vatican says, as long as you don't spread them around. On Tuesday, the Vatican responded to what it called an "unstoppable increase" in cremation and issued guidelines barring the scattering of ashes "in the air, on land, at sea or in some other way." The Vatican decreed that the ashes of loved ones have no place in the home, and certainly not in jewelry. It urged that cremated remains be preserved in cemeteries or other approved sacred places. As parishioners, we have reaped the benefits of our priests' selfless service. In the Archdiocese of Toronto, our priests lovingly act as "bridges of mercy," bringing the beautiful gift of Christ's love to our families and communities. The Shepherds' Trust appeal offers us the opportunity to recognize that service in a tangible way. The parish collection date is set for the weekend of November 12th/13th, 2016.
