FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

Dear boys and girls. . . I would like to congratulate you today because you look like little princesses and princes in your shining beautiful dresses, white shirts and dress pants. You are happy and all smiles today and the parish, your parents, teachers and relatives are so proud of you. They also want you to remember this special day throughout your life by giving you beautiful gifts like bibles, beautiful rosaries, prayer books and other precious gifts. For each one of you this day June 12th, 2022, should remain as the happiest and most memorable day of your life, because Jesus has made His home in your hearts. Today also being the Solemnity of The Most Holy Trinity, it is very fitting that you received your first Holy Communion.

I would like to personally thank Maricel and her daughter Mae Reyes who gently guided, taught and prepared the children so diligently to receive the Body of Christ. It was my pleasure to sit in on those classes and to be a part of the many discussions, and to hear their first Reconciliation.

Also ~ thank you to the parents who made the solemn commitment to bring their child to Mass and then to classes. May I take this opportunity to remind you also, that it is how you live and how you practice your faith in the family that is going to influence your children. Therefore, please continue to bring them to Mass and train them in the Christian faith and its practice, not by advice only, but by exemplary Christian lives. God bless you all. . .

Father Oswin

Congratulations to: Eva Abell, Wyatt Bartlett, Aiden Beck, Noella Dipietrantonio, Olivia Meaney, Cameron Nash, Cassandra Santino, Aliza Spragg, Lily Theodoru, and Angel & Westly Viola. May the happiness of this celebration continue as you begin a new life in Christ.

Please join the children and their families downstairs in the hall after Mass for presentation of certificates, gifts, and to enjoy cake, juice and coffee.

REFLECTION

Today's readings show some biblical roots of what Christians would later call the Trinity. Proverbs showcases the role of Wisdom in the work of creation, portrayed as a reality outside of God but integrated into God's work of forming the heavens and the earth. We join the psalmist in sharing Wisdom's delight in God's handiwork: "O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth" (Psalm 8:2).

In his letter to the Romans, St. Paul writes of peace with God through Jesus, and the love of God received through the Holy Spirit, distinguishing God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit while also displaying their abiding unity. Finally, in the farewell discourse from St. John's Gospel, Jesus~ who had earlier spoken of himself as Son of the Father, promises his friends that they will receive the Spirit of truth that will teach and guide them after his departure.

ARCHDIOCESE

Continuing this month we offer practical suggestions for Devotion to the Sacred Heart.

2. Read a portion of one of the Gospels every day

Consider reading the Gospel for the Mass of the day, or a chapter a day. Read prayerfully so as to encounter Jesus, and to experience the love.
