because of it, his sufferings will 'justify many'.

The Gospel brings us full circle as Jesus again speaks of the sacrifice that he, 'the Son of Man', will make. We see James and John approach Jesus seeking a share in his glory. He foretells the suffering that they, like him, will face, and reminds us all that, above all else, we must serve those in need.

Perhaps, this week, we can take time to review the ways in which we serve the needs of others. Knowing that the Lord will always hear us, we can ask for the grace and strength we need to do his will.
