SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Acts 4: 7~12

Psalm 118: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

Second Reading: John 3: 1~2

Gospel: John 10: 11~18

We continue our journey through Eastertide, experiencing the joy of the Risen Lord. In the First Reading, St. Peter explains that the miracle he has been able to perform came not from him, but from the name of Jesus Christ, the keystone rejected by the builders.

In the Gospel, Jesus describes himself as the Good Shepherd, who is prepared to lay down his life for us; he knows us intimately and wants to bring everyone into his fold. On this Day of Prayer for Vocations, we might pray that everyone should be willing and able to fulfil their own vocation. We continue to pray for war-torn countries, that they will find a Good Shepherd to guide them out of conflict.

ARCHDIOCESE
WORLD DAY OF PRAYER
FOR VOCATIONS

The fourth Sunday of Easter, Christians are invited to reflect on the meaning of God's call and to pray for vocations. Christ, the Good Shepherd, continues to lead his people through His Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, and calls many to follow Him in this way. Priestly, diaconal, and religious vocations should be a constant concern in the hearts of God's people.
