SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Exodus 24: 3~8

Psalm 116: I will lift up the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9: 11~15

Sequence: 1 ~ 12

Gospel: Mark 14: 12~16, 22~26

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood (Corpus Christi) is a celebration of the new covenant of Christ with his people: the covenant of his blood, where he offered himself as a perfect sign of his love for us.

Christ's love for us has been revealed in the shedding of his blood on the cross. By this one act, Christ teaches, that to love deeply is to sacrifice oneself totally for the loved one. The Eucharist is a constant reminder of this sacrificial love.

When he said, "Do this in memory of me!" it is not just the ritual alone, but the act itself. His offering of his body and blood and our receiving the same is a ratification of the "new" covenant. The newness of this sacrifice is that it has been offered once and for all. There is no need of offering a fresh sacrifice again and again like the sacrifices of the Old Testament. To perform merely the ritual is easy, but to imitate the act is the challenge. We constantly risk the danger of reducing the Eucharist to mere ritual.

Each one of us is called to enjoy a special relationship with Jesus and the Blessed Trinity by eating the Body and drinking the Blood of Jesus. May the Eucharist be for us the most efficient means of living as sons and daughters of God.

ARCHDIOCESE

During the month of June we focus on the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Throughout this month we will offer practical suggestions for Devotion to the Sacred Heart.

- 1. Make a Holy Hour of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament
Spending an hour with Jesus is the only thing relating to himself that he specifically asked of us, when he said in the Garden of Gethsemane: "So, could you not watch with me one hour?" (Matthew 26:30)
