THIS WEEKEND

Saturday November 23rd

4 pm ** Intention of the People

Sunday November 24th

9 am + All the Parish Souls

11 am + Ingrid March

SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Daniel 7: 13~14

Psalms 93: The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

Second Reading: Revelation 1: 5~8

Gospel: John 18: 33b~37

'My kingdom is not of this world'

As we come to the end of another liturgical year, the Feast of Christ, King of the Universe, gives us the opportunity to consider the priorities we wish to live by in our troubled world.

In the Second Reading from the Apocalypse, Christ is called the Alpha and the Omega. He has rescued us from our sins and will be made manifest when he comes again on the clouds of heaven.

The Gospel brings us to the essential question. What kind of king is Jesus? As Pilate questions him, Jesus explains that his kingdom is not of this world; it is not a kingdom of pomp and power and glory. Christ has come to testify to the truth. May we pray this week that all humankind may be united in Christ, so that he can offer to the Father a people 'of truth and life, of holiness and grace, of justice, love and peace' (words heard at the Preface to the Eucharistic Prayer at Mass today).

ARCHDIOCESE

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

You are invited to remember the souls of your loved ones by entering their names in the book, which is placed by the Pascal Candle at the right side of the Altar. All Souls Day Envelopes ~ petitions received in these envelopes from the families, Masses will be said during the year. All Souls candles, is the perfect candle for remembering your dearly departed. We honour our deceased loved ones by praying for them at our Masses.

To conclude the month of November, there is a Solemn Holy Souls Mass this morning at St. Anthony's and on Friday November 29th at 6:00 pm at St. Joseph's Church.

*May the souls of all the faithful departed
Through the mercy of God rest in peace.*
