SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Wisdom 3: 1~9

Psalms 116: I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

Second Reading: Revelation 21: 1~5a, 6b~7

Gospel: Luke: 7: 11~17

The month of November provides a special opportunity to remember and pray for our beloved dead.

On Friday, November 1st we celebrate All Saints' Day. In our churches, we have memorial books where the names of those dear to us are recorded and remembered.

On All Saints Day, we honour the Church in Heaven and on All Souls Day, we commemorate the Church in Purgatory ~ the deceased faithful who are on their way to Heaven. Their present period of purification will infallibly end with their vision of God and union with the other saints. This, then, is not a day of mourning. We rejoice because our faithful departed have been judged worthy to be with God.

In the gospel reading ~ the first passage (Luke 7:11~17) describes Jesus raising the only son of a widowed mother in Nain, which instills awe and the recognition of a great prophet in the crowd. The attention on this Sunday's readings often focuses on themes of compassion, recognizing God's power, and the importance of gratitude.

On this Solemnity, we can take encouragement from knowing that we belong to an eternal community of saints. With them, let us pray as Pilgrims of Hope for all those who are persecuted for expressing their faith in the Gospel.

ARCHDIOCESE

THE SHEPHERDS' TRUST

There will be a second collection the weekend of November 16, 2025. The mission of the Shepherds' Trust is to help ensure that nearly 160 elderly and disabled priests are provided with sufficient financial resources to lead a dignified life after many years of ministry. Thank you for your support of this important work! Envelopes are available at the back of the churches.

NOVEMBER

THE MONTH OF ALL SOULS

This month is devoted to those who have gone before us. In a special way it is a time when we can pray for all souls in purgatory who are awaiting their entry into the heavenly kingdom.

To conclude the month of November, there will be a Solemn Holy Souls Mass celebrated on Sunday November 30th @ 9:00am at St. Anthony's at 11:00am at St. Joseph's.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

The Book of Life is placed by the Pascal Candle at the Ambo for you to list the names of the dead for whom you wish prayers to be offered during the month of the Holy Souls throughout the month of November.

ALL SOULS DAY ENVELOPES along with ALL SOULS (3 DAY) REUSABLE CANDLES are at the back of the church.
